MIKE CACHIERO | VICE PRESIDENT, COMMERCIAL SPACE OPERATIONS
LOCKHEED MARTIN SPACE SYSTEMS COMPANY
Q&A | Lockheed Martin's Rick Ambrose on the convergence of commercial and defense systems

by Mike Gruss — April 25, 2016

As executive vice president of Lockheed Martin Space Systems, Rick Ambrose has worked to position the company to win its share of government and commercial business, taking a particularly keen interest as the Defense Department plans its future satellite architectures.
